Dr. Michael L. Lomax, President of Dillard University, is a distinguished academic, political, and community leader. He served for 12 years as Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Fulton County, Georgia (the county containing Atlanta) and was a mayoral candidate in Atlanta. He is a member of President Bush's Board of Advisors on Historically Black Colleges and Universities, and has led an exciting revitalization program in his five years as President of Dillard, a liberal arts university in New Orleans, Louisiana.
