Written Homework Guide

- Written Homework is due at the beginning of class each Monday beginning in Week 2. The one exception will be the week of the Labor Day holiday. In that week, homework will be due on Wednesday.
- No late homework is accepted for any reason.
- No make-up homework is accepted for any reason.
- Written Homework problems are listed in the Schedule.
- You are expected to complete all homework problems without the use of technology (that includes calculators). Any exceptions will be noted in the Schedule.
- There are a total of 14 Written HW assignments. Your two lowest homework grades will be dropped at the end of the semester.
- Each homework is worth 20 points. At the end of the semester, your homework average will be converted to a number of points out of 50. For example, if your homework average is 90% then you will receive 45 points out of 50.

- Break down of homework points: 20 total points

  1. Stapled \hspace{2cm} 1 point
  2. Name and Section number \hspace{2cm} 1 point
  3. Assignment number \hspace{2cm} 1 point
  4. One column of work per page \hspace{2cm} 1 point
  5. Completeness \hspace{2cm} 1 point
  6. General appearance* \hspace{2cm} 3 points
  7. Graded problems \hspace{2cm} 12 points

*General appearance includes legible handwriting, problems completed in order, problems numbered, no scratching out, use of pencil not pen, graphs labeled, answers boxed, etc...