Notes about 11/16 workshop:

 There are no good writers; there is only good writing. And good writing gets ‘A’s’. And good writing only comes from effective and efficient revision. Come to this workshop to learn techniques for revision that make your writing more effective and your process more manageable.

Seth Myers, Ph.D. Has been teaching college writing for 10 years. Now an instructor at CU Boulder, Seth also edits Knowing Words, the textbook for CU first-year writing classes.
